Regional UUP tele-town halls to gauge coronavirus response, progress

UUP members will have new opportunities to ask questions and share concerns about campus operations during the coronavirus pandemic, when UUP convenes a series of six regional tele-town halls for members.

The tele-town halls will take place from Sept. 15 to Sept. 24, by region. Each event will be held at noon:

Sept. 15 – Western NY (Alfred, Brockport, Buffalo Center, Buffalo HSC, Buffalo State, Fredonia, Geneseo and Empire State College)

Sept. 16 – Capital District (Albany, Cobleskill, Polytechnic Institute, System Administration and Empire State College)

Sept. 17 – Central NY (Binghamton, Cortland, Delhi, ESF, Morrisville, Oneonta, Upstate Medical University and Empire State College)

Sept. 22 – Long Island (Farmingdale, Old Westbury, Stony Brook, Stony Brook HSC and Empire State College)

Sept. 23 – Hudson Valley/Metro-Downstate (Downstate Medical Center, Maritime, New Paltz, Optometry, Purchase and Empire State College)

Sept. 24 – North Country (Canton, Oswego, Plattsburgh, & Potsdam)

The regional tele-town halls will provide an overview of the political and economic landscape related to public higher education, as well as an opportunity to hear about the progress that UUP has achieved through coordinated member, chapter, and statewide actions to address COVID-19 reopening issues.

Each meeting will begin with a brief presentation, but the majority of the time will be devoted to member participants so that they can ask questions and share concerns.

UUP has used tele-town halls throughout the pandemic as an effective way of communicating with members in real time and giving members a chance to get the latest updates on the union's efforts on their behalf, to ask questions and speak directly with lawmakers.
